Asian influence used throughout the yacht on Northern Sun's interior design can be seen in the elegance of tropical woods teak, makore and narra.

Like explorers of a bygone era, the owners of Northern Sun have amassed their own collection of artwork, nautical antiquities and rugs from around the world and these treasures are exhibited throughout the yacht. The artworks depict shipping through the ages, from the clipper ships of the early 19th century to mid-20th century passenger liners. Many of the carpets on the vessel date from the early and mid-20th century and are fine examples of the craftsmanship of the traditional rug weavers of the Middle East. A beautiful ship's clock is also on board, which rings a bell every half-hour in proper nautical fashion.

South East Asia is very much a land of discovery, famous for its crystal clear waters, active volcanoes and magnificent variety of wild life. Deserted beaches and exotic cultures are waiting for those seeking an adventure. Try an elephant jungle trek, a scuba expedition, or a cultural visit to discover the traditional life of the local sea gypsy village. Exotic locations such as the Butang Islands just 27nm northwest of Langkawi offer exceptionally preserved coral reefs, or take a walk on one of the uninhabited islands of the Mergui Archipelago - made up of over 800 islands and spread over 14,000 square miles of the Indian Ocean. These islands are in such a pristine state that many are still uninhabited due to the country's isolation over the last 50 years. The islands are mountainous and covered by jungle, with spectacular waterfalls tumbling directly onto white sandy beaches, fringed with coral reefs and teeming with wildlife.

On board Northern Sun, an abundance of fresh seafood and local ingredients are crafted together by the chef to delight the senses and ensure the voyage is a gastronomic treat. Menu highlights include sea bass filets with zucchini puree, steamed Swiss chard, chanterelle mushroom and shaved black truffles, or linguine with jumbo fresh water scampi and date tomatoes. Or try local favourites such as Thai salad with sweet potato chips, tofu and turmeric dressing, or Thai chicken with galangal and coconut milk soup... all finished off with delicious desserts that include caramel balsamic swirl ice cream, Limoncello soufflé and luscious tropical fresh fruits.

There is endless fun to be had with Northern Sun's extensive range of water sports equipment. Guests may enjoy snorkelling, kayaking, paddle boarding, Laser dinghy sailing, sea bobbing, wakeboarding, water skiing and fishing. If you are really adventurous then check out the latest water toy - a towering inflatable water slide that is a full two decks high! ☺
